AGRF 2019 is only 2 months away!

We hope that you have nominated the first public program to identify the winners you are interested in for the Forum, secured accommodation in Accra, Ghana and booked your flight-only space if you intend to showcase your digital innovations at DDF - Digital Transformation. If you haven’t, see additional information below for a quick guide on how to do so.

Register today. It will take you less than 5 minutes!

Register to attend the AGRF 2019. Logging into the platform, you’ll find that all flights and 10,500 delegates have registered. Hurry and register as these are only held tickets available. Click here to register now.

Where to stay in Accra – Book a room as soon as possible

As you register, please ensure to secure your accommodation. The AGRF Secretariat has negotiated discounted rates with selected hotels in the city and will list these on the platform for the benefit of delegates. More details below. Specialized delegates will be contacted separately regarding their accommodation.

Please review from here on filling up to date with AGRF and once all are in Accra, book your accommodation as soon as possible to secure your most desired location.

Use

The Government of Ghana will provide access to various AGF delegations only via a Passport. Please contact registration@agf.org +233 279 944 857 to receive a request that you will present to the immigration officers upon arrival to Accra. You will be expected at the airport where you will be directed to the immigration counter. Specialized delegates will be contacted separately on this line.

The Program

The forum sessions are shaping up really well. On the program, we have covered the, and expect close to 500 leading speakers from the private and public sectors to explore issues in the sector. In line with our focus on agrifood business, particularly for smallholders.

The program will feature a number of initiatives in the area of agriculture, including addressing the sustainable management of resources, amongst other areas.

Exhibition

Make sure to showcase your innovations, products or services at the AGRF exhibition area.

We will be hosting a booth that will allow you to showcase your products or services to the wide and diverse audience.

Unlocked market for digital services to transform African agriculture

A new study by the Technical Centre for Agricultural and Rural Cooperation (CAREF) reveals that the application of digital technology in agriculture was welcomed in Africa. According to the study, more than 50 per cent of the respondents identified the need for digital services that can improve their livelihoods remain unlocked and could be sold to more than 76 million farmers, leading to a significant impact on agricultural productivity and land use at the African level. For more, see Digital Transformation.

CGIAR System Organization joining AGF as Partner

The CGIAR Partners Joining. We are happy to welcome the CGIAR System Organization as a new partner of the AGRF. As a new partner, they will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the forum.

If you need additional information, please contact us at support@agf.org or +233 279 944 857. For all other information, please contact +233 27 518 8145.